 25 Butler, and Cindy Cohn, and Joint 26 Declaration of Tina Wolfson and Mark
 Molumpy, filed concurrently herewith]

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR RESPECTIVE ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on October 21, 2021 at 1:30 p.m., in Courtroom 8 of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, Robert F. Peckham Federal Building & United States Courthouse, 280 South First Street, San Jose, California 95113, the Honorable Lucy H. Koh, presiding, Plaintiffs<sup>1</sup> will and hereby do move for an Order pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (“Rule”): (i) preliminarily approving the proposed Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release dated July 30, 2021 (attached as Exhibit 1 to the Joint Declaration of Tina Wolfson and Mark Molumphy, filed concurrently herewith); (ii) finding that, for purposes of effectuating the proposed Settlement, the prerequisites for class certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) are likely to be found satisfied; (iii) approving the form and manner of notice to the Settlement Class; (iv) approving the selection of the Settlement Administrator; and (iv) scheduling a Final Approval Hearing before the Court.

Plaintiffs’ motion is based upon this Notice of Motion and Motion, the Memorandum of Points and Authorities set forth below, the Joint Declaration of Tina Wolfson and Mark Molumphy in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Proposed Class Action Settlement (“Joint Declaration”), the Settlement Agreement, the Declarations of Cameron R. Azari of Epiq Class Action and Claims Solutions, Inc., Alan Butler of Electronic Privacy Information Center, and Cindy Cohn of Electronic Frontier Foundation, all exhibits attached thereto, the pleadings and records on file in this Action, and other such matters and argument as the Court may consider at the hearing of this motion.

STATEMENT OF ISSUES TO BE DECIDED

1. Whether the proposed Settlement warrants: (a) the Court’s preliminary approval; (b) a finding that, for purposes of effectuating the proposed Settlement, the prerequisites for class certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) are likely to be found satisfied; (c)

1 dissemination of Notice of the Settlement’s terms to Settlement Class Members; and (d) a hearing
2 on Motions for final approval of the Settlement, and an award of Service Payments to Class
3 Representatives, attorneys’ fees, and reimbursement of expenses;

4 2. Whether the proposed Notice satisfies due process and adequately apprises the 5 Settlement Class Members of the terms of the Settlement and their rights with respect to it;

6 3. Whether Epiq Class Action and Claims Solutions, Inc. should be appointed as 7 Settlement Administrator;

8 4. Whether the proposed plan of allocation of the Settlement Fund should be 9 preliminarily approved; and 10 5. Whether the Claim Form is sufficient.

11 Respectfully submitted,

12 Dated: July 31, 2021

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 After a year and a half of hard-fought and contentious litigation, and months of concurrent
4 settlement negotiations, the Parties present the Court with an agreement to settle Plaintiffs' claims 5 against Zoom Video Communications, Inc. ("Zoom") on a nationwide, class basis. If approved, the 6 Settlement will establish a non-reversionary cash fund of $85 million to pay valid claims, notice 7 and administration costs, Service Payments to Class Representatives, and any attorneys' fees and 8 costs awarded by the Court. The Settlement also provides comprehensive injunctive relief designed 9 to address the issues on which Plaintiffs' claims are based. In sum, the Settlement provides an 10 outstanding set of benefits to Class Members and merits preliminary approval.

11 The Settlement is the product of well-informed, arm's-length settlement negotiations—12 including four mediation sessions and extensive further negotiations between experienced counsel 13 facilitated by the Honorable Jay C. Gandhi (Ret.) of JAMS—that spanned over nine months. It 14 arrives at a critical juncture in the litigation, after extensive motion practice and discovery, but 15 before the Plaintiffs and Class Members must face the risks of class certification and summary 16 judgment proceedings. The Settlement presents an excellent recovery and delivers tangible and 17 immediate benefits to the Settlement Class, particularly considering the substantial risks protracted 18 litigation would present. The Court should grant preliminary approval.

19 II. BACKGROUND

20 Plaintiffs litigated this case diligently, through co-lead counsel Cotchett, Pitre & McCarthy, 21 LLP and Ahdoot & Wolfson, PC (together, "Class Counsel"), by: (i) conducting a wide-ranging 22 investigation into the Settlement Class's claims; (ii) filing three comprehensive consolidated 23 complaints in this action (not including the earlier complaints filed in certain Plaintiffs' initial 24 actions preceding consolidation); (iii) successfully opposing Defendant's motion to dismiss as to 25 key theories of liability; (iv) engaging in comprehensive discovery, including motion practice
26 before Magistrate Judge Susan van Keulen; (v) consulting with experts; (vi) preparing for class 27 certification briefing; (vii) engaging in mediation with Defendant, including the exchange of 28 significant information in connection with such mediation, and many other tasks. As a result,

1 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel had a thorough understanding of the relative strengths and weaknesses
2 of the claims asserted at the time the Settlement was reached.

3 A. The Litigation and Class Counsel's Efforts on Behalf of the Class

4 In early 2020, usage of Zoom's video conferencing services increased dramatically in 5 response to the COVID-19 pandemic. See Dkt. No. 179, Second Amended Complaint ("SAC") ¶ 6 75. Shortly thereafter, reports announced that Zoom claimed to have end-to-end encryption, when 7 in fact Zoom did not offer true end-to-end encryption. Id. ¶¶ 160-73. Plaintiffs alleged that Zoom 8 improperly shared its users' data without notice or consent through the use of third party software 9 integrations from companies such as Facebook (id. ¶¶ 76-89) and Google (id. ¶¶ 109-14).
10 Additionally, Zoom meetings became the target of "Zoombombings"—i.e., unwanted and 11 unauthorized interruptions of Zoom meetings which caused numerous problems and disruptions for 12 Zoom and its users. Id. ¶¶ 174-80.

13 Between March and May 2020, 14 class action complaints were filed against Zoom alleging 14 various state and federal claims for misrepresentations and violations of Zoom customers' security
15 and privacy. On May 28, 2020, this Court issued an order consolidating the actions, and on June 16 30, 2020, appointed Tina Wolfson of Ahdoot & Wolfson, PC and Mark C. Molumphy of Cotchett, 17 Pitre & McCarthy LLP as Interim Co-Lead Counsel. Dkt. No. 62 at 7; Dkt. No. 92 at 2. Rachele R.
18 Byrd of Wolf Haldenstein Adler Freeman & Herz LLP, Albert Y. Chang of Bottini & Bottini, Inc., 19 and Eric H. Gibbs of the Gibbs Law Group LLP were appointed to the Plaintiffs' Steering 20 Committee. Id.

21 On July 30, 2020, Class Counsel filed a Consolidated Amended Complaint ("CAC"). Dkt.
22 No. 114. On September 14, 2020, Zoom filed a motion to dismiss the CAC. Dkt. No. 120. On 23 October 14, 2020, the parties filed a joint stipulation whereby Zoom agreed to withdraw its motion
24 to dismiss, Plaintiffs agreed to file an amended complaint, and the parties set the briefing schedule 25 for Zoom's motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' amended complaint. Dkt. No. 123. The Court granted the 26 joint stipulation on October 24, 2020. Dkt No. 125.

27 On October 28, 2020, Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Consolidated Class Action
28 Complaint ("FAC"), Dkt No. 126, which (1) added three California plaintiffs—Ms. Angela Doyle,

1 Ms. Sharon Garcia, and Mr. Peter Hirshberg; (2) alleged in greater detail the harms Plaintiffs 2 experienced as a result of Zoom’s various violations; (3) alleged additional facts regarding Zoom’s
3 failure to warn; and (4) clarified Plaintiffs’ position that Zoom’s disclosures to third parties are not 4 limited to just the Facebook software development kit (“SDK”), LinkedIn Navigator, or Google
5 Firebase Analytics. Zoom filed its Motion to Dismiss the First Amended Consolidated Class Action
6 Complaint (“MTD”) on December 2, 2020. Dkt. No. 134.

7 On March 11, 2021, this Court issued an Order Granting in Part and Denying Part Zoom’s 8 Motion to Dismiss (“MTD Order”). Dkt. No. 168. The Court dismissed the following claims with 9 leave to amend:

- 10 • All “Zoombombing” claims to the extent they (1) challenge the harmfulness of 11 content provided by another; and (2) derive from Zoom’s status or conduct as a 12 publisher or speaker of that content.
- 13 • Count 1: Invasion of privacy under California Law.
- 14 • Count 2: Negligence.
- 15 • Count 8: California’s Comprehensive Data Access and Fraud Act (“CDAFA”).
- 16 • Counts 6, 7, and 9: Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”) claim under the 17 “fraudulent” prong; Consumer Legal Remedies Act (“CLRA”); and California 18 Civil Code § 1710(3) fraudulent concealment.

19 The Court DENIE[D] the motion to dismiss the following:

- 20 • All “Zoombombing” claims to the extent they do not either (1) challenge the 21 harmfulness of content provided by another; or (2) derive from Zoom’s status 22 or conduct as a publisher or speaker of that content.
- 23 • Count 3: Implied contract.
- 24 • Count 4: Implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.
- 25 • Count 6: UCL claims under the “unlawful” and “unfair” prongs.
- 26 • Count 5: Unjust enrichment/quasi contract.

28 On May 12, 2021, Plaintiffs filed the SAC, which responded to the MTD Order by bolstering the allegations supporting claims that the Court dismissed. The SAC omits the previously asserted negligence and CDAFA claims, as well as two Plaintiffs who had been named in the FAC.

The Parties engaged in extensive discovery. See concurrently filed Joint Declaration of Tina
Wolfson and Mark C. Molumphy in Support of Preliminary Approval of Proposed Class Action

1 Settlement (“Joint Decl.”) ¶ 6. Class Counsel served interrogatories and document requests, and 2 obtained written responses and document production from Zoom. Id. Zoom also served written 3 discovery and 60 document requests on each of the Class Representatives, who provided complete
 4 written responses and documents. Id. The Parties litigated two discovery motions before Magistrate
 5 Judge Susan van Keulen, and an appeal to this Court. Dkt. Nos. 135, 142, 152, 154, 170. The Parties 6 also exchanged numerous additional documents and information in connection with the ongoing 7 mediation and settlement discussions. Joint Decl. ¶ 12. Plaintiffs had sufficient information to 8 evaluate the claims and negotiate a fair settlement. Id. ¶ 9.

9 B. Settlement Negotiations and Mediation

10 The Parties engaged in extensive, arms-length negotiations over the course of many months, 11 including four mediation sessions and numerous additional discussions facilitated by Judge Jay C.
 12 Gandhi, a former U.S. Magistrate Judge and respected mediator. Joint Decl. ¶ 8. Judge Gandhi has 13 extensive experience in class action litigation, both from his time as a Magistrate Judge in the 14 Central District of California and as a result of mediating many class actions, including multiple 15 data privacy cases where a settlement was reached and subsequently approved.<sup>2</sup> Judge Gandhi 16 remained highly involved throughout the lengthy negotiation process. Id. ¶ 11.

17 Ahead of the Parties’ mediation sessions, the Parties exchanged and vetted information to 18 prepare for and facilitate productive mediation sessions, in addition to extensive information 19 already gleaned through discovery. Id. ¶ 9. Before any terms were negotiated, the Plaintiffs had a 20 thorough understanding of the composition of the Settlement Class, the nature of Zoom’s 21 anticipated defenses on the merits, the likely nature of arguments that would be advanced at class 22 certification, summary judgment, and trial, and the complex technical issues surrounding the claims 23 and defenses, and potential injunctive relief, which Plaintiffs’ counsel reviewed and analyzed with 24 their consulting experts. Id.

1 With Judge Gandhi's guidance, the Parties commenced mediation in early November 2020, 2 with both sides were represented by experienced counsel who fought hard for their clients. Id. ¶ 10.
3 Although progress was made, the case did not settle at that time, and the Parties continued extensive
4 negotiations with Judge Gandhi's assistance. Id. The Parties reached agreement on certain key terms
5 in early April, 2021, and reported this to the Court on April 7, 2021. Dkt. No.176. However, the 6 Parties had yet to reach agreement on many other key terms, and continued to negotiate these issues
7 through additional mediations sessions. Joint Decl. ¶ 13. The Parties also participated in numerous 8 video and phone conferences between counsel during which Plaintiffs successfully negotiated the 9 significant injunctive relief promised by the Settlement, in addition to monetary relief. Id. ¶ 14. The 10 injunctive relief negotiations extended for weeks, including several iterations and revisions of 11 written proposals and counter-proposals, discussions with Zoom's in-house counsel, and 12 consultation with experts, and a day of mediation with Judge Gandhi. Id. Subsequently, the Parties 13 negotiated the details of a fair and workable distribution plan over the course of many days.
14 Numerous drafts and redlines of the Settlement Agreement and its many exhibits were exchanged, 15 followed by lengthy discussions between the Parties and negotiations about myriad issues. Id. ¶ 15.

16 The Parties also collaborated on the logistics and substance of the notice plan. Id. ¶ 16.
17 Plaintiffs' counsel spent numerous hours obtaining and negotiating bids from three well-18 established, experienced, and highly regarded class action notice and administration firms. Id. As a 19 result, Plaintiffs maximized the amount that would be available to the Class for payment of claims, 20 by minimizing the notice and administration costs, while ensuring that the notice and administration 21 plan complied with all federal rules and guidelines and due process requirements.

22 III. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

23 A. The Settlement Class and Release

24 The proposed Settlement Class is defined as follows:

25 [A]ll Persons in the United States who, between March 30, 2016 and the Settlement
26 Date, registered, used, opened, or downloaded the Zoom Meetings Application 27 ("App") except for (i) all Persons who have only registered, used, opened, or 28 downloaded the Zoom Meetings App through an Enterprise-Level Account or a Zoom for Government Account, (ii) Zoom and its officers and directors; and (iii)

1 the Judge or Magistrate Judge to whom the action is assigned and any member of 2 those Judges' staffs or immediate family members.

3 Settlement Agreement (“SA”) ¶ 1.40.

4 In exchange for the Settlement’s benefits, Settlement Class Members (“Class Members”) 5 will release any claims against Zoom based one or more of the same factual predicates alleged in 6 the action. Id. ¶¶ 1.32-1.34, 2-3.

7 B. The Settlement’s Monetary Benefits

8 The Settlement provides for a non-reversionary cash fund of $85 million. SA ¶ 2.1. All 9 Class Members are eligible for payment, regardless of whether or not they paid for a Zoom account.
10 Class Members who paid for an account will be eligible to receive 15% of the money they paid to 11 Zoom for their core Zoom Meetings subscription during that time or $25, whichever is greater 12 (“Paid Subscription Claim”). Id. ¶ 2.2(b). Class Members who are not eligible to submit a Paid 13 Subscription Claim may make a claim for $15 (“User Claim”). Id. ¶ 2.2(c). These amounts may be 14 adjusted, pro rata, up or down, depending on claim volume, the amount of any Fee and Expense
15 Award, Service Payments to Class Representatives, Taxes and Tax Expenses, and Settlement 16 Administration Expenses. Id. ¶¶ 1.20, 2.4. The Settlement is designed so that any residual funds are 17 distributed to Class Members if economically feasible. Id. ¶ 2.5(e). If not so feasible, however, any 18 residual funds will be distributed to the Electronic Frontier Foundation and the Electronic Privacy 19 Information Center, two Section 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations whose work relates directly to 20 the subject matter of the Action and benefits Class Members. SA ¶¶ 1.21, 2.1(c), 2.5(e).

21 C. Injunctive Relief

22 Zoom has agreed to over a dozen major changes to its practices, designed to improve 23 meeting security, bolster privacy disclosures, and safeguard consumer data. Id. ¶ 3. For example, 24 Zoom agreed to provide in-meeting notifications to make it easier for users to understand who can 25 see, save, and share Zoom users’ information and content by alerting users when a meeting host or 26 another participant uses a third-party application during a meeting. Id. ¶ 3.1(n). Separately, Zoom 27 will ensure that its privacy statement will disclose the ability of Zoom users to share user data with 28 third parties via integrations third party software, or otherwise to record meetings, and/or to 1 transcribe meetings. Id. ¶ 3.1(m). The Settlement also requires Zoom to (i) not reintegrate the 2 Facebook SDK for iOS into Zoom meetings for a year and will request that Facebook delete any 3 U.S. user data obtained from the SDK (id. ¶ 3.1(e),(f)); (ii) develop and maintain, for at least three 4 years, documented protocols and procedures for admitting third party applications for dissemination

 5 to users through Zoom’s “Marketplace” (id. ¶ 3.1(i)); (iii) develop and maintain a user-support 6 ticket system for internal tracking of, and communication with users about reports of meeting 7 disruptions (id. ¶ 3.1(c)); (iv) develop and maintain a documented process for communication with 8 law enforcement about meeting disruptions involving illegal content, including dedicated personnel 9 to report serial meeting disrupters to law enforcement (id.); (v) develop and maintain security 10 features such as waiting rooms for attendees, the suspend meeting activities button, and blocking 11 of users from specific countries for a minimum of three years (id. ¶¶ 3.1(b), 3.2). The Settlement 12 also requires Zoom to better educate users about the security features available to protect meeting 13 security and privacy, through dedicated space on the Zoom website and banner-type notifications.
 14 Id. ¶ 3.1(a). Zoom’s website will also have centralized information and links for parents whose 15 children are using school-provisioned K-12 accounts. Id. ¶ 3.1(p).

16 D. The Settlement’s Notice Plan

17 The proposed Notice forms are attached to the Settlement as Exhibits A (Claim Form), C 18 (Long Form Notice), E (Publication Notice) and G (Summary Notice). A Summary Notice (id. Ex.
 19 G) will be delivered via e-mail and, failing that, by U.S. mail to billing addresses, to Class Members
 20 for whom Zoom has such information. Id. ¶ 5.1; Declaration of Cameron R. Azari (“Azari Decl.”)
 21 ¶ 5. Notice will also be disseminated via digital and print media in a manner specifically designed 22 to reach Class Members. (Azari Decl. ¶¶ 19-27; SA ¶¶ 5.1(c), Ex. E). The Settlement Website
 23 (www.ZoomMeetingsClassAction.com), will communicate all important information, deadlines, 24 and the Long Form Notice. Id. ¶ 24. This website also will allow for electronic submission of Claim 25 Forms and have relevant Motions, Orders, and pleadings available for download. Id. Additionally, 26 a toll-free telephone number, email, and physical mailing address will be made available for Class
 27 Members to contact the Settlement Administrator or Class Counsel directly. Id. § 5.1(b), and Exs.
 28 C, E, and G; Azari Decl. ¶¶ 15-27. The costs of Notice will be paid out of the Settlement Fund. Id.

¶ 5.4. The Notice Plan is the best practicable notice under the circumstances and meets all due process requirements. Azari Decl. ¶¶ 15-27.

E. Proposed Class Representative Service Payments

Plaintiffs have been dedicated and active participants in this litigation. They assisted in the investigation of the facts, participated in the plaintiff vetting process implemented by their respective counsel, as well as Class Counsel after appointment, reviewed and approved the various complaints, kept in close contact with counsel to monitor the progress of the litigation, and communicated with counsel regarding the Settlement. Joint Decl. ¶ 18. Plaintiffs spent significant time responding to extensive and broad discovery served by Zoom, and willingly disrupted their lives to preserve and collect evidence, despite privacy concerns. The Plaintiffs put their names and reputations on the line for the sake of the Class, and took on additional significant stress of litigation during the COVID-19 pandemic. The Class recovery here would not have been possible without their efforts. In view of these efforts, Plaintiffs will petition the Court for approval of a $5,000 Service Payment each. SA ¶ 10.2. This amount is consistent with those approved in other privacy class action settlements. See § IV.B.ii infra.

F. Attorneys' Fees and Expenses

Plaintiffs' counsel will file a motion for an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses 35 days prior to the Objection Deadline. SA ¶ 10.1. Class Counsel intend to seek up to 25% of the Settlement Fund (i.e., $21.25 million) as attorneys' fees, and no more than $200,000 as reimbursement of expenses. Joint Decl. ¶¶ 27-28; SA ¶ 10.1 and Ex. C, Long Form Notice § 14. Any approved fees and expenses will be paid by Zoom out of the Settlement Fund. SA ¶ 10(a). The Settlement is not conditioned upon the Court's approval of the full (or any) Service Payments or an Attorneys' Fee and Expense Award. SA ¶ 10.3.

G. The Settlement Administrator

The Parties propose that Epiq—an experienced and reputable national class action administrator—serve as Settlement Administrator to provide notice, administer the claims process, and provide other services necessary to implement the Settlement. SA ¶¶ 1.38; see generally Azari Decl. Settlement Administration Expenses will be paid out of the Settlement Fund. SA ¶ 10.1(a).

1 Epiq was selected after a competitive bidding process led by Class Counsel. Joint Decl. ¶
 2 16. Class Counsel considered proposals from two other potential administrators. Id. Class 3 Counsel—each of whom have litigated hundreds of class actions to settlement—previously have 4 worked with Epiq, the two other bidders, as wells as other professional administrators. Id. ¶ 16. The 5 estimated $2,835,000 to $6,586,000 cost for settlement administration is reasonable. Id. ¶ 17.

6 IV. ARGUMENT

7 A. The Legal Standards for Preliminary Approval of Settlement

8 In deciding whether to approve a proposed settlement, the Ninth Circuit has a “strong 9 judicial policy that favors settlements, particularly where complex class action litigation is 10 concerned.” In re Hyundai and Kia Fuel Economy Litig., 926 F.3d 539, 556 (9th Cir. 2019); Officers
 11 for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). “[T]here is an overriding 12 public interest in settling and quieting litigation,” and this is “particularly true in class action suits.”
 13 Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp., 529 F.2d 943, 950 (9th Cir. 1976).

14 Rule 23 requires the Court to determine whether the Settlement is “fair, reasonable, and 15 adequate.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). To assess the fairness of a class settlement, Ninth Circuit courts 16 consider factors including:

17 (1) the strength of the plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely 18 duration of future litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status 19 throughout the trial; (4) the amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery 20 completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of class members to the proposed settlement.

21 In re Online DVD-Rental Antitrust Litig., 779 F.3d 934, 944 (9th Cir. 2015) (quoting Churchill 22 Vill., LLC v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir. 2004)). “[T]he very essence of a settlement is 23 compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers for Justice, 24 688 F.2d at 624 (citation omitted). “The proposed settlement is [thus] not to be judged against a 25 hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” Id. at 26 625.

27 Prior to class certification, class settlements must withstand a “higher level of scrutiny for 28 evidence of collusion or other conflicts of interest than is ordinarily required under Rule 23(e)

1 before securing the court’s approval as fair.” In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 2 935, 946 (9th Cir. 2011). The Court must be satisfied that “the settlement is not the product of 3 collusion among the negotiating parties.” Id. at 946-47. The Ninth Circuit has identified three 4 “signs” of possible collusion:

- 5 (1) “when counsel receive[s] a disproportionate distribution of the settlement”; (2)
- 6 “when the parties negotiate a ‘clear sailing arrangement,’” under which the
- 7 defendant agrees not to challenge a request for an agreed-upon attorney’s fee; and
- 8 (3) when the agreement contains a “kicker” or “reverter” clause that returns
- 9 unawarded fees to the defendant, rather than the class.

10 Briseno v. Henderson, 998 F.3d 1014, 1023 (9th Cir. 2021) (quoting Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 947).

11 The Northern District of California’s Procedural Guidance for Class Action Settlements 12 (“Guidance”) covers most of the requirements described above. The Settlement satisfies the 13 Guidance requirements, the Churchill factors, and all other requirements for preliminary approval.

14 B. The Settlement Satisfies the Northern District’s Guidance for Class Action
 15 Settlements

16 i. Guidance 1a and 1c: Differences Between Class Definitions, Claims

17 The proposed Settlement Class is different from that proposed in the SAC. Courts routinely 18 approve such changes. See, e.g., In re Netflix Privacy Litig., 2012 WL 2598819, at *1 (N.D. Cal.
 19 July 5, 2012) (different settlement class definition than that in the complaint); Schneider v. Chipotle 20 Mexican Grill, Inc., 2020 WL 511953, at *5-6 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 31, 2020) (approving modified 21 settlement class definition from classes certified).

22 The SAC defines the class as “[a]ll persons in the United States who used Zoom.” SAC 23 ¶ 195. In addition to conforming the Settlement Class definition to the four year statute of 24 limitations, Enterprise-Level and Zoom for Government Account users are excluded from the 25 Settlement Class, and do not release any claims. Plaintiffs learned through investigation that 26 Enterprise-Level and Zoom for Government Account users are factually differently positioned than 27 those of ordinary consumers because they negotiate the terms of their contracts with Zoom 28 individually to their specific needs, often with the help of sophisticated IT departments, and do not purchase their products “off the shelf.” Joint Decl. ¶ 12. Magistrate Judge van Keulen took note of this distinction and precluded Plaintiffs from obtaining further discovery related to Enterprise-Level

1 Account subscribers. Dkt. No. 154. Accordingly, the difference between the defined Settlement
2 Class and the class defined in the SAC is appropriate.

3 The claims to be released are congruent with the claims asserted in the Complaint on behalf 4 of the Settlement Class.

5 ii. Guidance 1e: Settlement Recovery Compared to Trial

6 Plaintiffs' allegations centered on three main theories of harm: 1) misrepresentations 7 concerning end to end encryption ("E2EE"); 2) unauthorized transfer of Plaintiffs' personal data to 8 third parties; and 3) Zoombombing due to Zoom's inadequate security and privacy controls.

9 Zoom collected approximately $1.3 billion in Zoom Meetings subscriptions from Class 10 Members who paid for the subscription. Joint Decl. ¶ 26. The time period during which this revenue 11 was collected includes when Zoom claims to have corrected its alleged E2EE misrepresentations 12 (in April 2020) as well as when it allegedly switched to true E2EE (October 14, 2020, after its 13 acquisition of Keybase.<sup>3</sup>). Nevertheless, the Settlement Fund amount of $85 million represents 14 approximately 6.16 % of the maximum total revenues collected based on the allegedly unlawful 15 practices, and is reasonable in light of the significant risks of litigation. Lower percentages of 16 maximum potential recoveries have been approved. Custom LED, LLC v. eBay, Inc., No. 12-cv-
17 00350-JST, 2014 WL 2916871, at *4 (N.D. Cal. June 24, 2014) ("[C]ourts have held that a recovery 18 of only 3% of the maximum potential recovery is fair and reasonable when the plaintiffs face a real 19 possibility of recovering nothing absent the settlement."); In re OmniVision Techs, Inc., 559 F.
20 Supp. 2d 1036, 1042 (N.D. Cal. 2008) (6% of potential damages); In re LDK Solar Sees. Litig., 21 No. 07-5182 WHA, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 7168, at *7 (N.D. Cal. July 29, 2010) (5% of potential 22 damages); In re Veritas Software Corp. Sec. Litig., 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 30880, at *5 (N.D. Cal.
23 Nov. 15, 2005) (observing that, from 1991 to 2003, the median percentage of losses paid in 24 settlement ranged from 2.7% to 7.2%), vacated in part on other grounds, 496 F.3d 962 (9th Cir.
2007).

25 <sup>3</sup> See Max Krohn, Zoom Rolling Out End-to-End Encryption Offering, ZOOM BLOG, (Oct. 14, 2020), 26 available at <https://blog.zoom.us/zoom-rolling-out-end-to-end-encryption-offering/>; Eric S. Yuan, 27 Zoom Acquires Keybase and Announces Goal of Developing the Most Broadly Used Enterprise

<https://blog.zoom.us/zoom-acquires-keybase-and-announces-goal-of-developing-the-most-broadly-used-enterprise-end-to-end-encryption-offering/> (last accessed July 27, 2021.)

1           Furthermore, the individual recoveries offered by the Settlement are reasonable. Based on 2 consultation with damage experts, 15% of total core subscription is excellent considering that the 3 E2EE representation was but one feature of the Zoom services among the numerous service benefits
4 that the Paid Subscribers did receive. Joint Decl. ¶ 20. And $15 for Class Members who never paid 5 for Zoom is within the ballpark of what consumers may be willing to receive in exchange for the 6 type of data the SAC alleges Zoom disclosed. Id. Both the total amount and the proposed allocation 7 of the Settlement are reasonable in light of the substantial risks of litigation.

8           The MTD Order illustrates the substantial risk that Plaintiffs would not be able to recover 9 anything through continued litigation. For example, the Court dismissed Plaintiffs’ claims to the 10 extent that they derive from Zoom’s status as a publisher or speaker, and to the extent that the claims 11 are not content-neutral. Dkt. No. 168 (“MTD Order”), at 17-18. The Court concluded that “Section 12 230(c)(1) mostly immunizes Zoom from Plaintiffs’ Zoombombing claims here” (id. at p. 18) and 13 that the “bulk of Plaintiffs’ Zoombombing claims lie against the ‘Zoombombers’ who shared 14 heinous content, not Zoom itself. Zoom merely ‘provid[ed] neutral tools for navigating’ its service” 15 (id. at p. 19). According to the Court, Plaintiffs’ criticism of Zoom’s default features, for example, 16 amount to claims based on Zoom’s failure to “edit or block user content,” which is activity 17 immunized by Section 230. Id. Thus, the Court dismissed Plaintiffs’ negligence cause of action, as 18 it pertained to emotional distress caused by Zoombombing.<sup>4</sup> The Court maintained, however, 19 Plaintiffs’ breach of implied contract claim, through which they allege they did not obtain the 20 benefit of their bargain in sharing their data with Zoom in exchange for a secure videoconferencing 21 service. Id. at p. 27; SAC ¶¶ 217-31.

22           With respect to the E2EE misrepresentation claims, the Court dismissed Plaintiffs’ fraud-
23 based misrepresentation claims under the UCL and CLRA in its MTD Order, but it denied dismissal
24 of the non-fraud allegations. MTD Order at 34-37. Though Plaintiffs’ claims based on Zoom’s 25 E2EE misrepresentations survived, Plaintiffs later would be required to demonstrate that these 26 misrepresentations were material and consistent in order to certify them. See, e.g., In re Tobacco II
27 Cases, 46 Cal. 4th 298, 326 (2009).

28 <sup>4</sup> The Court also held the economic loss rule barred the negligence claim. MTD Order at 24.

1 The Court dismissed Plaintiffs' invasion of privacy claim, concluding Plaintiffs failed to 2 plead Zoom shared their personal data through the Facebook SDK, through Zoom's android
3 application, or through the LinkedIn Sales Navigator. MTD Order at 20. The Court required
4 Plaintiffs to show "what information, precisely [certain] third parties have obtained," Id. at 23
5 (citation omitted), and held that failure to allege information such as versions of the Zoom 6 application and operating systems used rendered Plaintiff's allegations inadequately pled. Id. In 7 response, the SAC provided further allegations regarding the dates and times Plaintiffs first 8 downloaded and used the Zoom application, and on their devices. SAC ¶¶ 17-61. While Plaintiffs 9 are confident that the amendments cured any pleading defects, and that they would ultimately prove 10 their case, the issues outlined by the Court would continue to present challenges going forward, 11 including at summary judgment.

12 Although Plaintiffs firmly believe their liability case is strong and that class certification is 13 warranted, it is uncertain whether the Court ultimately would grant certification, deny a motion for 14 summary judgment filed by Zoom, or ever find that Plaintiffs are entitled to damages. Even if 15 Plaintiffs obtained class certification, successfully opposed a motion for summary judgment, and 16 subsequently proved liability at trial, they still would face the significant risk of recovering nothing 17 for the Class Members because the fact and amount of damages are uncertain.

18 Privacy damages are particularly uncertain and numerous privacy class actions have been 19 settled for non-monetary relief. See, e.g., Campbell v. Facebook Inc., No. 13-CV-05996-PJH, 2017
20 WL 3581179, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 18, 2017) (granting final approval of declaratory and injunctive 21 relief settlement in litigation alleging Facebook engaged in user privacy violations), aff'd, 951 F.3d
22 1106 (9th Cir. 2020); In re Google LLC St. View Elec. Commc'ns Litig., No. 10-MD-02184-CRB, 23 2020 WL 1288377, at *16 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 18, 2020) (granting final approval of settlement 24 providing class with injunctive relief and creating a non-distributable cy pres settlement fund in 25 litigation alleging Google violated privacy by illegally gathering Wi-Fi network data); McDonald, 26 et al. v. Killoo A/S, et al., No. 3:17-cv-04344-JD (N.D. Cal. Apr. 12, 2021), ECF No. 406 (granting 27 final approval of 16 injunctive relief-only settlements in related privacy class actions accusing 28 defendants of violating child privacy protection laws by collecting and selling PII of children).

1 The Settlement here compares favorably to these and other class action settlements alleging 2 violations of privacy and security. See e.g., In re Google Plus Profile Litig., No.
3 518CV06164EJDVKD, 2021 WL 242887, at *1 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 25, 2021) (settlement fund of $7.5 4 million for 161 million Google+ users whose personal information was exposed); In re: Vizio, Inc., 5 Consumer Privacy Litigation, 8:16-ml-02693-JLS-KES (C.D. Cal. July 31, 2017) (settlement fund 6 of $17 million for 16 million potential claimants for unauthorized collection and disclosure of 7 information from customers' VIZIO smart TVs, including IP addresses and device identifiers); In 8 re LinkedIn User Priv. Litig., 309 F.R.D. 573, 582 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (settlement fund of $1.25
9 million for claims related to approximately 6.4 million LinkedIn users' stolen account passwords
10 who were influenced by LinkedIn's statements concerning security and paid for premium 11 subscriptions). Furthermore, Plaintiffs successfully obtained substantive and meaningful injunctive 12 relief.

13 Given the anticipated disputes that would inevitably lie ahead, including class certification 14 and summary judgment, and given Defendant's vigorous arguments as to the merits, it is not an 15 overstatement to say that the Class Representatives faced significant risk. And, even if Class 16 Representatives successfully proved their case at trial, the amount of recovery, if any, could vary 17 widely depending on other factors, including the Court's discretion. Importantly, even if anything 18 were recovered, it would take years to secure, as Zoom undoubtedly would appeal any adverse 19 judgment. In comparison, the Settlement provides a guaranteed, immediate, and substantial cash 20 recovery of $85 million, plus significant injunctive relief.

21 iii. Guidance 1f and 1g: The Settlement's Plan of Allocation Merits Approval

22 All Class Members are eligible to make claims for cash. Paid subscribers (other than 23 Enterprise-Level or Government Accounts) will be eligible to receive the 15% of the money they 24 paid to Zoom for their core Zoom Meetings subscription between March 30, 2016 and the 25 Settlement Date (July 30, 2021), or $25, whichever amount is greater ("Paid Subscription Claim").
26 SA ¶ 2.2(b). Class Members not eligible to submit a Paid Subscription Claim—those who did not 27 pay for the Zoom Meetings App—are eligible to make a User Claim for $15. Id. 2.2(c).

28

1 Class Members must submit a Claim Form (either online or physically through the mail) to 2 receive funds. SA Ex. A. The Claim Form is simple and easy to complete. Azari Decl. ¶ 24. Those 3 with unique claim numbers (provided on the Summary Notice sent directly to Class Members, SA, 4 Ex. G) need only provide their names, mailing address, email and claim number. Those without 5 claim numbers may also file a claim by providing either an email associated with a Zoom account, 6 a Zoom account number, or failing that, documentation and an attestation demonstrating that they 7 are a Class Member. Id. The Settlement Administrator will administer the entire process, including 8 validating the claims and calculating the Settlement Payment amounts.<sup>5</sup> SA ¶¶ 2.3, 2.5.

9 Class Counsel anticipate more Paid Subscription Claims than User Claims, because the 10 Settlement Payment amount for paid claims is likely to be higher than for User Claims. Data 11 provided by Zoom indicates that on average Class Members who paid Zoom, paid approximately 12 $250 and 15% of this amount is $37.50. Joint Decl. ¶ 21.

13 While it is inherently difficult to predict claims rates with precision, based on the substantial 14 recovery, comparable settlements, and the ubiquity of Zoom's platform, Plaintiffs and Epiq expect 15 the claims rate from paid subscribers will be between 1% and 5% and the claims rate for non-paying 16 users to be between 1% and 2%. Id. ¶ 22. Assuming claims reach the high end of both estimates
 17 listed above, the recovery will still be substantial. At a 5% Paid Subscription Claims rate and 2%
 18 User Claims rate (approximately 276,000 paid and 4.32 million unpaid claims), paid subscribers 19 would receive, on average, approximately $34, and nonpaying users would receive approximately 20 $11. At slightly lower claims rates (3% Paid Subscriber Claims and 2% User Claims; 21 approximately 165,000 and 4.32 million claims, respectively), the recovery would be 22 approximately $35 (on average) for paid subscribers and $12 for non-paying users.<sup>6</sup> Id.

23
 24 <sup>5</sup> Paid Subscription and User claims are subject to pro rata adjustment (up or down) based on total 25 number of Claims and on the other deductions from the Settlement Fund. SA ¶¶ 2.2, 2.4.

26 <sup>6</sup> These estimates are based on conservative class size estimate of 221.7 million—likely higher 27 than the true number. Zoom disclosed that the number of class members who are eligible to submit 28 Paid Subscription Claims and User Claims, and for which they have contact information, is approximately 160 million collectively. Approximately 5.5 million of this population are paid subscribers, or those eligible to submit a Paid Subscription Claim. Joint Decl. ¶ 26. The Settlement

1                    iv. Guidance 1h: Non-Reversionary Fund

2                    The Settlement Fund is a non-reversionary fund. Any residual will be distributed to the Non-3 Profit Residual Recipients. See Guidance 8, infra; SA ¶¶ 1.21, 2.5(e).

4                    v. Guidance 2: The Proposed Settlement Administrator

5                    In connection with preliminary approval, the Parties request that the Court authorize the 6 retention of Epiq as Settlement Administrator for the Settlement. Epiq is a nationally recognized 7 notice and claims administration firm and has extensive experience in class actions and on notice
8 issues. Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8-14. Epiq was selected over two other administrators after a competitive
9 bidding process. Joint Decl. ¶ 16. Epiq estimates that the total amount of the Settlement 10 Administration Expenses here will be between $2,835,000 to $6,586,000 depending on the volume 11 of claims and other assumptions (such as number of inquiries, amount of postage, volume of hard 12 vs. online claims, etc.). Azari Decl. ¶ 32.

13                    vi. Guidance 3: The Proposed Notices to the Settlement Class are Adequate

14                    Rule 23(c)(2)(B) requires that settlement notice be “the best notice that is practicable under 15 the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through 16 reasonable effort.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(B) (“The court must 17 direct notice in a reasonable manner to all class members who would be bound by the propos[ed 18 settlement].”). Notice “must generally describe[] the terms of the settlement in sufficient detail to 19 alert those with adverse viewpoints to investigate and to come forward and be heard.” Lane v.
20 Facebook, Inc., 696 F.3d 811, 826 (9th Cir. 2012) (citation omitted).

21                    The Notice Plan is well designed to reach Class Members and is the best notice practicable
22 as Class Members will be receiving notice directly to the extent contact information is available
23 and through digital and print media. Azari Decl. ¶¶ 15-27. The Notice forms are clear and, together 24 with the Settlement Website, provide all the information Settlement Class Members possibly might

25 _____
26 Class, as defined, consists of those who used Zoom but did not register with Zoom. SA ¶ 1.40.
27 Zoom states that it does not have sufficient data to accurately determine the number of unregistered 28 users who comprise this part of the Settlement Class. Joint Decl. ¶ 25. Class Counsel believes that,
Id. assuming for analysis, a class consisting of 221.7 million Class Members is a conservative estimate.

1 require to make an informed decision as to how to respond. The Notice program therefore satisfies
2 the requirements of Rule 23. Accord Noll et al. v. eBay, Inc., 309 F.R.D. 593, 604-5 (N.D. Cal.
3 2015). Courts routinely find that comparable notice procedures meet the requirements of due 4 process and Rule 23. See id.; Williamson v. McAfee, Inc., No. 5:14-cv-00158-EJD, 2016 WL
5 4524307, at *7-8 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 30, 2016); Russell v. Kohl's Dept. Stores, Inc., No. ED CV 15-6 1143 RGK (SPx), 2016 WL 6694958, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 11, 2016).

7 vii. Guidance 4 and 5: Opt-Outs and Objections

8 The proposed Notice complies with Rule 23(e)(5) in that it discusses the rights of Settlement
9 Class Members. The proposed Notice includes information on a Settlement Class Member's right
10 to: (1) request exclusion and the manner for submitting such a request; (2) object to the Settlement, 11 or any aspect thereof, and the manner for filing and serving an objection; and (3) participate in the 12 Settlement and instructions on how to complete and submit a Claim Form to the Settlement 13 Administrator. SA ¶ 6.

14 viii. Guidance 6: The Intended Attorneys' Fees and Expenses Request

15 As set forth in the proposed Notice, Class Counsel anticipate seeking attorneys' fees up to 16 25% of the Settlement Fund (i.e., $21.25 million), plus out-of-pocket expenses of up to $200,000.
17 As of July 29, 2021, Class Counsel and Executive Committee members report a lodestar of 18 approximately $5.51 million and $145,000 in expenses. Joint Decl. ¶ 28. Though Class Counsel 19 anticipate reporting a higher lodestar with their Fee Motion, at this amount, the maximum fee
20 request here would represent 3.86 multiplier. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 21 n.6 (9th Cir. 2002) (noting multipliers of between 1.0 and 4.0 are "frequently awarded"); Smith v.
22 CRST Van Expedited, Inc., No. 10-CV-1116-IEG (WMC), 2013 WL 163293, at *5 (S.D. Cal. Jan.
23 14, 2013) ("Under the percentage method, California has recognized that most fee awards based on 24 either a lodestar or percentage calculation are 33 percent.") (citing In re Consumer Privacy Cases, 25 175 Cal. App. 4th 545, 556 n.13 (2009)). Class Counsel will detail their work, hours, lodestar and 26 expenses in their fee and expense motion to be filed 35 days prior to the Objection Deadline. The 27 work and expenses were critical to Class Counsel's success in achieving this Settlement, and are 28 reasonable.

ix. Guidance 7: The Proposed Settlement and Proposed Service Payments Do Not Unjustly Favor Any Class Members, Including Class Representatives

Class Counsel intend to seek a Service Payment of $5,000 for each Class Representative. SA ¶ 10.2. Service Payments “have long been approved in the Ninth Circuit.” In re Apple Inc. Device Performance Litig., No. 5:18-md-02827-EJD, 2021 WL 1022866, at *11 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 17, 2021).

In evaluating whether the Settlement grants preferential treatment to Class Representatives, the Court may consider whether there is a “significant disparity between the incentive award[] and the payments to the rest of the class members” such that it creates a conflict of interest. Radcliffe v. Experian Info. Solutions, Inc., 715 F.3d 1157, 1165 (9th Cir. 2013). Important considerations are “the number of class representatives, the average incentive award amount, and the proportion of the total settlement that is spent on incentive awards.” In re Online DVD-Rental Antitrust Litig., 779 F.3d at 947 (quoting Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 977 (9th Cir. 2003)). A court may also consider “the actions the plaintiff has taken to protect the interests of the class, the degree to which the class has benefitted from those actions, [and] the amount of time and effort the plaintiff expended in pursuing the litigation.” Staton, 327 F.3d at 977; In re Magsafe Zoom Power Litig., No., 2015 WL 428105, at *15 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 30, 2015). Finally, the Court must evaluate whether a conflict exists due to the incentive award being conditioned on the class representative’s approval and support of the Settlement. Radcliffe, 715 F.3d at 1161.

The Service Payments requested here are reasonable. “Incentive awards typically range from $2,000 to $10,000.” Bellinghausen v. Tractor Supply Co., 306 F.R.D. 245, 267 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (collecting cases). Courts in this District have found that a $5,000 incentive award is presumptively reasonable. In re LinkedIn User Privacy Litig., 309 F.R.D. 573, 592 (N.D. Cal. 2015); Rosado v. Ebay Inc., No. 5:12-cv-04005-EJD, 2016 WL 3401987, at *9 (N.D. Cal. June 21, 2016). And, because the Settlement is not conditioned on the Court’s approval of any Service Payment, the Settlement does not grant preferential treatment to Class Representatives. SA ¶ 10.3.

While the amount requested per Class Representative is several times more than the estimated monetary benefit per Settlement Class Member, this does not rise to the level of unduly preferential treatment. Courts have approved similar or greater disparities between incentive awards

1 and individual class member payments. See LinkedIn, 309 F.R.D. at 582 (approving a $5,000 2 incentive award where class members would receive approximately $14.81); Cox v. Clarus Mktg.
3 Group, LLC, 291 F.R.D. 473, 483 (S.D. Cal. 2013) (approving a $5,000 incentive award where 4 class members would receive a maximum payment of $36); Fulford v. Logitech, Inc., No. 08-cv-5 02041 MMC, 2010 WL 807448, at *3 n.1 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 5, 2010) (collecting cases awarding 6 incentive award payments ranging from $5,000 to $40,000).

7 More importantly, Class Representatives seek altogether, at most, $60,000 (0.071%) of the 8 $85 million Settlement Fund. This amount is reasonable considering how minuscule the award is 9 in relation to the full amount of the Settlement Fund. See Online DVD-Rental, 779 F.3d at 947-48 10 (approving incentive awards that were roughly 417 times larger than $12 individual awards because 11 the awards were reasonable, the number of representatives were relatively small, and the total 12 amount of incentive awards “ma[d]e up a mere 0.17% of the total settlement fund”); cf. Staton, 327 13 F.3d at 976-77 (reversing approval of incentive awards that averaged $30,000 each for 29 class 14 representatives, totaling $890,000, or roughly 6% of a potential $14.8 million settlement). Thus, 15 the Settlement does not improperly grant preferential treatment to Class Representatives or 16 segments of the Settlement Class. In re Portal Software, Inc. Sec. Litig., No. C-03-5138 VRW, 17 2007 WL 1991529, at *6 (N.D. Cal. June 30, 2007).

18 The amount requested also is appropriate given the time and risk Class Representatives took 19 on to participate in this Action. Class Representatives spent more than a year prosecuting this 20 Action, and have spent many hours reviewing pleadings, responding to discovery requests, working 21 with ESI Vendors to gather data responsive to Zoom’s requests, and reviewing and producing 22 documents. These factors further support and justify the amount requested. See, e.g., Eddings v.
23 Health Net, Inc., 2013 WL 3013867, at *7 (C.D. Cal. June 13, 2013) (approving $6,000 service 24 payment from $600,000 settlement to compensate the Class Representative for her time, effort and 25 risk in prosecuting the action).

26 Class Representatives’ interests do not conflict with or diverge from the interests of the 27 Settlement Class. Radcliffe, 715 F.3d at 1161. Accordingly, the Court should preliminarily approve 28 the request for Service Payments.

1                    x.     Guidance 8: Cy Pres Awardees

2                    Based on the manner in which payments will be made, including potentially a pro rata
 3 increase of payments for each Approved Claim, the Parties do not anticipate any residual funds
 4 remaining in the otherwise non-reversionary Class Settlement Amount. In the event residual funds
 5 do remain after payment of Settlement Payments to Settlement Class Members, Settlement 6 Administrative Expenses, Taxes, Fee and Expense Award, and Service Payments, they will be 7 distributed to the Non-Profit Residual Recipients. SA ¶¶ 1.21, 2.5(e). The Non-Profit Residual 8 Recipients' work relates directly to the subject matter of the Action and benefits Class Members.
 9 See generally, concurrently filed Declarations of Alan Butler and Cindy Cohn. Class Counsel have 10 no relationship with the Non-Profit Residual Recipients.

11                    xi.    Guidance 9: Proposed Timeline

12                    In connection with preliminary approval of the Settlement, the Court must also set dates for 13 certain events. The Parties suggest a schedule based on the following intervals:

Event / Deadline	Proposed Time for Compliance
Zoom to provide available names, emails, addresses, account numbers, etc. to Administrator	Five (5) business days after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order. SA ¶5.1.
Administrator to complete email and/or postcard notice ("Notice Date")	Seventy-five (75) days after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order. SA ¶ 1.23.
Claim Deadline	Sixty (60) days after the Notice Date. SA ¶ 1.7.
Objection Deadline	Sixty (60) days after the Notice Date. SA ¶ 1.25.
Exclusion (Opt Out) Deadline	Sixty (60) days after the Notice Date. SA ¶ 1.25.
Deadline to file Motions for Award of Service Payments and for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses	Thirty-Five (35) days prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline. SA ¶10.1.
Deadline to file Motion for Final Approval	Thirty-Five (35) days prior to the Objection and Exclusion Deadline
Deadline to file responses to Objections (if any), and other support documents	Fourteen (14) days following the Objection and Exclusion Deadline
Final Hearing	The Court's discretion, but no sooner than thirty (30) after the Objection and Exclusion Deadline

1                    xii. Guidance 10: Class Action Fairness Act

2                    Zoom will serve the notice required by the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, no 3 later than 10 days after this filing. SA ¶ 5.7.

4                    xiii. Guidance 11: Past Distributions

5                    Per Section 11 of the Guidance, Class Counsel submits that the settlements in In re: Apple
6 Inc. Device Performance Litigation, No. 5:18-md-02827-EJD (N.D. Cal.), and In re: Vizio, Inc.,
7 Consumer Privacy Litigation, No. 8:16-ml-02693-JLS-KES (C.D. Cal.), provide useful
8 comparisons to this Settlement. Joint Decl. ¶ 29. As noted above, given the claims rate in other 9 privacy related class action settlements, Defendant’s name recognition, and the notice plane here, 10 Class Counsel expect that claims rate for Paid Subscription Claims will be between 3% to 5% and 11 User Claims between 1% and 2%. Id. ¶ 24.

12                    C. The Settlement Is the Product of Arms-Length Negotiations

13                    None of the signs of collusion identified by the Ninth Circuit are present here. There is no 14 “free sailing provision” and Class Counsel will not seek fees and expenses that exceed the Ninth 15 Circuit’s 25% “benchmark.” Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 942; SA § 10. There is no reversion of the 16 Settlement Fund— rather the Settlement makes every effort to distribute any residual to the Class.
17 See SA § 2. Class Counsel will apply for fees from the Settlement Fund, and so had every incentive 18 to secure the largest fund possible. There is no indication or existence of collusion or fraud in the 19 settlement negotiations and the Settlement that is being presented to the Court.

20                    i. The Proposed Settlement Is the Product of a Mediator’s Proposal and Is 21 Supported by Experienced Counsel

22                    Courts recognize that the opinion of experienced counsel supporting settlement after arm’s-23 length negotiations is entitled to considerable weight. Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility, 87 F.R.D.
24 15, 18 (N.D. Cal. 1980), aff’d, 661 F.2d 939 (9th Cir. 1981) (“[T]he fact that experienced counsel 25 involved in the case approved the settlement after hard-fought negotiations is entitled to 26 considerable weight.”). Class Counsel conducted an extensive investigation into the alleged claims, 27 diligently prosecuted the case, and faced an aggressive and steadfast defense mounted by a premier 28 firm in the nation. Class Counsel also engaged in rigorous negotiations with Defense Counsel, and

1 fully considered and evaluated the fairness of the Settlement. The Parties' protracted and hard-2 fought negotiations included the determined assistance of an experienced mediator. At Judge 3 Gandhi's direction, the Parties submitted comprehensive mediation briefs and supplemental 4 statements. After submitting their statements, counsel for all Parties attended four mediations. The 5 Parties gave detailed and thoughtful presentations of their respective cases, and Judge Gandhi 6 provided reasonable assessments of the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position. It was 7 only after several months of intense discussions, and a mediator's proposal, that the Parties
8 ultimately reached an agreement. Even after agreement on the most salient terms was reached, 9 additional months of further negotiations and the mediator's intervention were required.

10 Additionally, throughout the Action and settlement negotiations, Zoom has been vigorously 11 represented by Cooley LLP, their advocacy being no less rigorous than Class Counsel's. Because 12 the Settlement is the product of serious, informed, and non-collusive negotiations among 13 experienced counsel and the product of a mediator's proposal, it merits preliminary approval. See 14 Villegas v. J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., 2012 WL 5878390, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2012) (noting 15 that private mediation "tends to support the conclusion that the settlement process was not 16 collusive").

17 ii. The Stage of the Proceedings and the Discovery Conducted Support the 18 Settlement

19 In a class action setting, courts also look for indications that the parties carefully investigated 20 the claims before reaching a resolution, including propounding and reviewing discovery. In re
21 Volkswagen "Clean Diesel" Mktg., Sales Practices, & Prods. Liab. Litig., No. 09-00261 SBA, 22 2016 WL 6248426, at *14 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 25, 2016) ("extensive review of discovery materials 23 indicates [Plaintiffs have] sufficient information to make an informed decision about the 24 Settlement. As such, this factor favors approving the Settlement."); see also In re Portal Software
25 Sec. Litig., 2007 WL 4171201, at *4.

26 As discussed above, Class Counsel (and their co-counsel) engaged in extensive 27 investigation, research, and analysis of the Class's claims, which resulted in the Court upholding, 28 in part, the FAC. Dkt. No. 168. Class Counsel thereafter aggressively pursued discovery through

1 multiple requests for production of documents and interrogatories, intensive meet and confers, and 2 discovery motion practice before Magistrate Judge Susan van Keulen and this Court. Dkt. Nos. 135, 3 142, 152, 154, 170. Zoom produced over 4,444 documents, equating to 26,480 pages of fact-related 4 material for review. In addition, Class Counsel consulted with experts, subpoenaed documents from 5 several non-parties, and thereafter engaged in multiple discussions concerning the subpoenas with 6 both the non-parties and Zoom. This discovery allowed Class Representatives to adequately 7 evaluate the merits of their claims.

8 D. Rule 23's Requirements for Class Certification are Met

9 Parties seeking class certification for settlement purposes must satisfy the requirements of 10 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 620 (1997). “A court considering 11 such a request should give the Rule 23 certification factors ‘undiluted, even heightened, attention
 12 in the settlement context.’” Sandoval v. Roadlink USA Pac., Inc., No. EDCV 10-00973, 2011 WL 13 5443777, at *2 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 9, 2011) (quoting Amchem, 521 U.S. at 621). At the preliminary 14 approval stage, “if a class has not [yet] been certified, the parties must ensure that the court has a 15 basis for concluding that it likely will be able, after the final hearing, to certify the class.” Fed. R.
 16 Civ. P. 23, Adv. Comm. Notes to 2018 Amendment. All the requirements of Rule 23(a) must be 17 met, and “at least one of the three requirements listed in Rule 23(b).” Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v.
 18 Dukes, 564 U.S. 338, 345 (2011).

19 i. Class Representatives Satisfy Rule 23(a) Prerequisites

20 Numerosity—Rule 23(a)(1): Here, it is undisputed that millions of persons in the United 21 States have purchased and/or used the Zoom application. There can be no doubt that numerosity is 22 satisfied in this litigation.

23 Commonality—Rule 23(a)(2): For purposes of Rule 23(a)(2), even a single common 24 question is satisfactory. Wal-Mart, 564 U.S. at 359; see also Mazza v. Am. Honda Motor Co., 666 25 F.3d 581, 589 (9th Cir. 2012) (characterizing commonality as a “limited burden,” which “only 26 requires a single significant question of law or fact”). At a minimum, Zoom made uniform 27 misrepresentations concerning the privacy and security of its services.

1           Typicality—23(a)(3): Plaintiffs are typical of the Settlement Class they seek to represent.
 2 Hanon v. Dataproducts Corp., 976 F.2d 497, 508 (9th Cir. 1992). Each alleges that he or she “used
 3 Zoom’s services in reliance on Zoom’s promises that (a) Zoom does not sell users’ data; (b) Zoom
 4 takes privacy seriously and adequately protects users’ personal information; and (c) Zoom’s 5 videoconferences are secured with end-to-end encryption and are protected by passwords and other 6 security measures.” SAC ¶¶ 19, 25, 28, 30, 33, 38, 46, 50, 53, 58, 62. Plaintiffs’ and Class Members’ 7 claims arise from the same nucleus of facts, pertain to a common defendant, and are based on the 8 same legal theories. As such, Plaintiffs are typical of other Settlement Class Members.

9           Adequacy—Rule 23(a)(4): Plaintiffs have no conflicts with other class members. They and 10 Class Counsel have prosecuted this Action vigorously on behalf of the Settlement Class, and will 11 continue to do so. Ebarle v. Lifelock, Inc., No. 15-cv-00258-HSG, 2016 WL 234364, at *4 (N.D.
 12 Cal. Jan. 20, 2016) (citing In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 462 (9th Cir. 2000)).

13           ii. Plaintiffs Satisfy Rule 23(b)(3)’s Requirements

14           Class Representatives seek conditional certification under Rule 23(b)(3), which provides 15 that a class action can be maintained where: (1) the questions of law and fact common to members 16 of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individuals; and (2) the class action 17 mechanism is superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the 18 controversy. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3); eBay, 309 F.R.D. at 604.

19           Predominance: Here, every Settlement Class Member alleged that they were subjected to 20 the same representations and/or conduct concerning privacy and security that caused harm to each 21 Settlement Class Member. These common questions can be resolved for all members of the 22 proposed Settlement Class in a single adjudication. See, e.g., Abante Rooter & Plumbing, Inc. v.
 23 Pivotal Payments Inc., No. 3:16-CV-05486, 2018 WL 8949777, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 15, 2018); In 24 re Anthem, Inc. Data Breach Litig., 327 F.R.D. 299, 312 (N.D. Cal. 2018).

25           Superiority: Where, as here, a court is deciding the certification question in a settlement 26 context, it need not consider manageability issues because “the proposal is that there be no trial,” 27 and hence manageability considerations are no hurdle to certification for purposes of settlement.
 28 Amchem, 521 U.S. at 620. Here, a class action is the only reasonable method to fairly and efficiently

1 adjudicate Class Members’ claims against Zoom. See, e.g., Phillips Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797,
 2 809 (1985) (“Class actions . . . permit the plaintiffs to pool claims which would be uneconomical
 3 to litigate individually . . . [In such a case,] most of the plaintiffs would have no realistic day in 4 court if a class action were not available.”). Resolution of the predominant issues of fact and law 5 through individual actions is impracticable: the amount in dispute for individual class members is 6 too small, the technical issues involved are too complex, and the required expert testimony and 7 document review too costly. Just Film, Inc. v. Buono, 847 F.3d 1108, 1123 (9th Cir. 2017). Fed. R.
 8 Civ. P. 23(b)(3).

9 E. The Court Should Appoint the Named Plaintiffs as Class Representatives

10 The Court should appoint the named Plaintiffs as Settlement Class Representatives because 11 they have no conflicts with the class and are represented by qualified counsel who will vigorously 12 prosecute the class’s interests. In re Online DVD-Rental Antitrust Litig., 779 F.3d at 943.

13 F. The Court Should Appoint Class Counsel as Settlement Class Counsel

14 Class Counsel were previously appointed interim class counsel. Dkt. No. 92. Considering 15 counsel’s work in this Action, their collective expertise and experience in handling similar actions, 16 and the resources they have committed to representing the class, they should be appointed as Class 17 Counsel for the proposed settlement class under Rule 23(g)(3) and confirmed under Rule 23(g)(1).
 18 See also Dkt. Nos. 74, 74-1 – 74-4.

19 V. CONCLUSION

20 For the reasons discussed herein, Class Representatives respectfully request the Court 21 preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, find that, for purposes of effectuating the proposed 22 Settlement, the prerequisites for class certification under Rule 23(a) are likely to be found satisfied, 23 approve Notice and the selection of the Settlement Administrator, and set a hearing for final 24 approval.

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

IN RE: ZOOM VIDEO
COMMUNICATIONS, INC. PRIVACY
LITIGATION

CASE NO. 5:20-CV-02155-LHK

CLASS ACTION

This Document Relates To:

ALL ACTIONS.

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS
ACTION SETTLEMENT AND APPROVING
FORM AND CONTENT OF CLASS NOTICE

1           WHEREAS, the Plaintiffs and Defendant Zoom Video Communications, Inc. (“Zoom”)
2 (together, the “Parties”) in the above-described class action (“Action”) have applied for an order,
3 pursuant to Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, regarding certain matters in connection 4 with a proposed settlement of the Action, in accordance with a Class Action Settlement Agreement and 5 Release (“Settlement Agreement”) entered into by the Parties on July 30, 2021, which, together with 6 the exhibits and appendices thereto, sets forth the terms and conditions for a proposed resolution of this 7 litigation and for its dismissal with prejudice;

8           WHEREAS, this Court has reviewed the Settlement Agreement entered into by the Parties, all 9 exhibits thereto, the record in this case, and the Parties’ arguments.

10           GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

11           1.       The Court finds that the Parties have shown the Court it will likely be able to approve 12 the proposed Settlement, as embodied in the Settlement Agreement, as being fair, reasonable and 13 adequate under Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, subject to further consideration at 14 the Final Approval Hearing to be conducted, as described in Paragraph 21 below.

15           2.       All terms and definitions used herein have the same meanings as set forth in the 16 Settlement Agreement.

17           3.       The Court has reviewed the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, the exhibits 18 and attachments thereto, Plaintiffs’ motion papers and briefs, and the declaration of counsel. Based on 19 its review of these papers, the Court finds that the Settlement Agreement appears to be the result of 20 serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations conducted with the assistance of former United States
21 Magistrate Judge Honorable Jay C. Gandhi over the course of over nine months and four mediation 22 sessions.

23           4.       The terms of the Settlement Agreement do not improperly grant preferential treatment 24 to any individual or segment of the Settlement Class and fall within the range of possible approval as 25 fair, reasonable, and adequate.

26           5.       The Court therefore GRANTS the preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement 27 and all of the terms and conditions contained therein.

Certification for Settlement Purposes Only

6. The Settlement Agreement defines the Settlement Class as follows,:

All Persons in the United States who, between March 30, 2016 and the Settlement Date, registered, used, opened, or downloaded the Zoom Meetings Application (“App”), except for (i) all Persons who have only registered, used, opened, or downloaded the Zoom Meetings App through an Enterprise-Level Account or a Zoom for Government Account, (ii) Zoom and its officers and directors, and (iii) the Judge or Magistrate Judge to whom the action is assigned and any member of those Judges' staffs or immediate family members.

7. If the Settlement Agreement is not finally approved by this Court, or if such final approval is reversed or materially modified on appeal by any court, (a) to the extent applicable, the Preliminary Approval Order, the Final Approval Order, and the Judgment, and all of its or their provisions will be vacated by its or their own terms, including, but not limited to, vacating any and all rulings regarding class certification for settlement purposes, including conditional certification of the Settlement Class, conditional appointment of Plaintiffs as Class Representatives, and conditional appointment of Plaintiffs’ Counsel as Class Counsel; (b) the Settlement Agreement will be deemed null and void ab initio (except for Sections 2.1(b)(i), 2.1(e), 2.1(f), 2.1(h), 2.1(i), 2.1(j), and 9 of the Settlement Agreement), and the Action will revert to the status that existed before the Settlement Agreement’s execution date; and (c) (i) no term or draft of the Settlement Agreement, (ii) nor any part of the Parties’ settlement discussions, negotiations, or documentation (including any declaration or brief filed in support of the motion for preliminary approval or motion for final approval), (iii) nor any rulings regarding class certification for settlement purposes (including the Preliminary Approval Order and, if applicable, the Final Approval Order and the Judgment), will have any effect or be admissible into evidence for any purpose in the Action or any other proceeding. If the Court does not approve the Settlement or enter the Final Approval Order and the Judgment for any reason, or if the Final Settlement Date cannot occur for any reason, Zoom shall retain all its rights, for example, to object to the maintenance of the Action as a class action, to move for summary judgment, and to assert defenses at trial, and nothing in this Settlement Agreement or other papers or proceedings related to the Settlement shall be used as evidence or argument by any Party concerning whether the Action may properly be maintained as a class action, or for any other purpose.

1 8. Solely for purposes of effectuating the proposed Settlement, the Court finds, pursuant
2 to Rule 23(e)(1), that the prerequisites for class certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
3 23(a) are likely to be found satisfied as: the Settlement Class is comprised of millions of individuals;
4 there are questions of law or fact common to the Settlement Class; the Class Representatives' claims
5 are typical of those of Settlement Class Members; and the Settlement Class Representatives will fairly 6 and adequately protect the interests of the Settlement Class.

7 9. Solely for purposes of effectuating the proposed Settlement, the Court finds, pursuant 8 to Rule 23(e)(1), that the prerequisites for class certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
9 23(b)(3) are likely to be found satisfied as: the questions of law or fact common to the Settlement Class 10 predominate over individual questions and class action litigation is superior to other available methods 11 for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy.

12 10. Pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and solely for purposes of 13 effectuating the Settlement, the Court hereby appoints as Class Representatives: Caitlin Brice, Heddi
14 N. Cundle, Angela Doyle, Isabelle Gmerek, Kristen Hartmann, Peter Hirshberg, M.F., Therese 15 Jimenez, Lisa T. Johnston, Oak Life Church, Saint Paulus Lutheran Church, and Stacey Simins.

16 11. Pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and solely for purposes of 17 effectuating the Settlement, the Court hereby appoints as Class Counsel to represent the proposed 18 Settlement Class: Tina Wolfson of Ahdoot & Wolfson, PC and Mark C. Molumphy of Cotchett, Pitre, 19 & McCarthy LLP. Solely for the purposes of effectuating the Settlement, Class Counsel are authorized 20 to act on behalf of the Class Representatives, and all other Settlement Class Members with respect to 21 all acts or consents required by or that may be given pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, including 22 all acts that are reasonably necessary to consummate the Settlement, subject to final approval by the 23 Court of the Settlement.

24 Administration and Notice to the Settlement Class

25 12. The Court appoints Epiq Class Action and Claims Solutions, Inc. ("Epiq") to serve as 26 the Settlement Administrator. Epiq shall supervise and administer the notice procedures, establish and 27 operate the Settlement Website, administer the claims processes, distribute cash payments according 28

1 to the processes and criteria set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and perform any other duties that 2 are reasonably necessary and/or provided for in the Settlement Agreement.

3 13. All reasonable costs of notice and costs of administering the Settlement shall be paid 4 from the Settlement Fund as contemplated by Section 2.1(d) of the Settlement Agreement.

5 14. The Court approves, as to form and content, of the proposed Claim Form, Long Form 6 Notice, Publication Notice, and Summary Notice which are attached to the Settlement Agreement as 7 Exhibits A, C, E, and G, respectively, and finds that their dissemination substantially in the manner 8 and form set forth in the Settlement Agreement meets the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil 9 Procedure 23 and due process, constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and is 10 reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise members of the Settlement Class of the 11 pendency of the Action, the effect of the proposed Settlement (including the releases contained therein), 12 the anticipated Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses and for Service Payments, and their rights to 13 participate in, opt out of, or object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement.

14 15. Within five business days after the Court approves the Motion for Preliminary 15 Approval, Zoom shall, for the purpose of facilitating the distribution of the Summary Notice, provide 16 the Settlement Administrator with the last known email addresses and billing addresses for all Persons
17 that Zoom's records reasonably indicate are likely to be Settlement Class Members, which information 18 shall be based on records reasonably available to Zoom.

19 16. Pursuant to Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement, the Settlement Administrator shall 20 complete dissemination of the Notice on or before the Notice Date, defined in the Settlement 21 Agreement as 75 calendar days from the entry of this Preliminary Approval Order. Within 75 days after 22 entry of this Preliminary Approval Order, the Settlement Administrator shall complete the distribution 23 of the Summary Notice (via email) and/or Summary Notice (in postcard form) to the members of the 24 Settlement Class, complete publication notice in print publications and in a digital campaign, establish 25 the Settlement Website which shall contain relevant documents relating to the settlement such as the 26 Notices, information about the submission of Claim Forms, and other relevant documents (such as the 27 operative complaint filed in the Action, the Settlement Agreement, the Preliminary Approval Order, 28 Claim Forms, any application for the Fee and Expense Award and Service Payment, any brief filed by

1 the Parties in support of the Settlement, and the Final Approval Order).

2 Participation in the Settlement, Requests for Exclusion and Objections

3 17. Settlement Class Members who wish to make a Claim must do so by submitting a Claim 4 Form by the Claim Deadline, which is hereby set as 60 days following the Notice Date, in accordance 5 with the instructions contained therein. The Settlement Administrator shall determine the eligibility of 6 Claims submitted and allocate the Settlement Funds in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

7 18. Settlement Class Members who wish to object to the Settlement must provide: (1) the 8 objector’s name, address, and email address; (2) an explanation of the basis upon which the objector
9 claims to be a Settlement Class Member; (3) whether the objection applies only to the objector, a subset 10 of the Settlement Class, or the entire Settlement Class; (4) all grounds for the objection, including all 11 citations of legal authority and evidence supporting the objection; (5) the name and contact information 12 of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or in any way assisting the objector in connection with 13 the preparation or submission of the objection or who may profit from the pursuit of the objection, who 14 must enter an appearance with the Court in accordance with the Local Rules; and (6) a statement 15 indicating whether the objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing (either personally or 16 through counsel). Objections must (a) clearly identify the case name and number (i.e., “In re: Zoom
17 Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation, Case No. 5:20-cv-02155-LHK) and (b) must be mailed 18 to the Court (or filed with the Court in person) at the following address, and received the Objection and 19 Exclusion Deadline, hereby set as _____:

23 19. Any member of the Settlement Class who does not file a valid and timely written 24 objection in accordance with these procedures and the procedures detailed in the Settlement Agreement 25 Section 6.1, shall be deemed to have waived any objection, shall not be permitted to object to the 26 Settlement, and shall be precluded from seeking any review of the Settlement Agreement and/or the 27 Final Approval Order by appeal or other means.

28 20. Any putative member of the Settlement Class who seeks to be excluded from the

1 Settlement Class must submit a Request for Exclusion, in writing, and include: (1) the requestor’s 2 name, address and email address; (2) the requestor’s physical signature; (3) the name and number of 3 this Action (i.e., “In re: Zoom Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation, Case No. 5:20-cv-4 02155-LHK”); and (4) a statement that he or she wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Class for 5 purposes of this Settlement. Each Request for Exclusion can only request exclusion for that one
6 individual. The Request for Exclusion must be received by the Claims Administrator by the Objection 7 and Exclusion Deadline, hereby set as _____:

12 Any member of the Settlement Class who does not file a valid and timely Request for Exclusion shall 13 be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement upon entry of the Final Approval Order.

14 Final Approval Hearing

15 21. The Final Approval Hearing shall be held by the Court on _____, beginning at ____:____ a.m., 16 in Courtroom 8, 4th Floor, of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, 17 280 South 1st Street, San Jose, CA 95113.

18 22. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will determine whether: (1) the requirements 19 for certification of the Settlement Class have been met; (2) the proposed settlement of the Action on 20 the terms set forth in the Settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best
21 interests of the Settlement Class Members; (3) Class Counsel’s motion for a Fee and Expense Award
22 and Service Payments should be approved; and (4) the Final Approval Order and the Judgment
23 approving the Settlement and dismissing the Action on the merits with prejudice against the Plaintiffs 24 and all other Settlement Class Members should be entered.

25 23. The Final Approval Hearing may, without further notice to the Settlement Class 26 Members (except those who have filed timely and valid objections and requested to speak at the Final 27 Hearing), be continued or adjourned by order of the Court.

28 24. Objections by any Settlement Class Member to (a) the certification of the Settlement

1 Class; (b) the Settlement; and/or (c) the entry of the Final Approval Order and Final Judgment, shall 2 be considered by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing only if such Settlement Class Member files
3 with the Court a notice of his or her objections, submits documentary proof that he or she is a Settlement 4 Class Member, and states the basis for such objections.

5 25. On or before _____, Class Counsel shall file all papers in support of the application
6 for the Final Approval Order and Final Judgment. On or before _____, Class Counsel shall file 7 all papers in support of any motion for a Fee and Expense Award and Service Payments.

8 26. Objections by any Settlement Class Member to Class Counsel's motion for a Fee and 9 Expense Award and Service Payments shall be considered by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing
10 only if such Settlement Class Member files with the Court a notice of his or her objections, submits 11 documentary proof that he or she is a Settlement Class Member, and states the basis for such objections, 12 by _____.

13 27. Class Counsel's motion for a Fee and Expense Award and Service Payments will be 14 considered separately from the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the Settlement. Any appeal 15 from any order relating solely to Class Counsel's motion for a Fee and Expense Award and Service 16 Payments, or any reversal or modification of any such order, shall not operate to terminate, vacate, or 17 cancel the Settlement.

18 28. All proceedings and deadlines in this matter, except those necessary to implement this 19 Order and the Settlement, are hereby stayed and suspended until further order by the Court.

20 29. All Persons in the Settlement Class who do not validly opt out and exclude themselves 21 are hereby enjoined from pursuing or prosecuting any of the Released Claims as set forth in the 22 Settlement Agreement until further order of the Court.

23 30. The Parties' Counsel are hereby authorized to utilize all reasonable procedures in 24 connection with the administration of the Settlement which are not materially inconsistent with either 25 this Order or the Settlement Agreement.
